A Sponsor is a person or entity who has an interest in the paralegal profession and who supports the purposes of the Metroplex Association of Corporate Paralegals. An individual sponsor in good standing or one* representative designated by any entity may attend general membership meetings, seminars and other activities at fees charged to Voting Members. Neither sponsors, nor their designees, shall have the right to vote, hold an office, or serve as an officer/director, section coordinator, chairman or member of a committee.

 If there will be more than one representative, all company representatives and/or guests attending quarterly luncheons and other events are requested to RSVP in advance, due to space limitations at our luncheon sites. The cost of the meeting is per person.
